

JOIN US FOR GOING PLACES

A community-based teacher workshop that will provide you with hands-on learning strategies and materials to utilize the stories of Curious George and The Journey that Saved Curious George: The True Wartime Escape of Margret and H.A. Rey to teach your students in an interdisciplinary approach to meeting the standards.

The session is geared for 2nd and 3rd grade, but adaptable for any age and subject area. All Collier educators are welcome to apply from public, independent and home schools.

Event Info

Wednesday, January 18, 2017

Pre-reception: 3:30-4:00 pm

Workshop: 4:00-6:30 pm

at Artis—Naples, Toni Stabile Building, 2nd fl.
5551 Ridgewood Drive, Naples, FL 34108

Supporting STEAM

STEAM-oriented activities that align with the Florida Standards and Next Generation Sunshine State Standards for grades two and three.

MIP available for CCPS teachers

About GOING PLACES

All participants will receive a copy of the book, and other supporting materials, along with an invitation for the teacher and family for a sneak-peek of the Curious George traveling exhibit opening at C'mon on January 21st and a chance to win:

- A complimentary field trip for your class between February and May to visit the Curious George traveling exhibit.
- A classroom visit from Curious George

This session is brought to you by your community with no fee, but we do ask that you complete a short application to be considered. Space is limited. Please apply by January 2, 2017.

Sponsors

The requested images from the cover are used in the book by permission of the de Grummond Children's Literature Collections, The University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, MS.