Cyril Monroe

Attila the Hun: Accompanied by the Cyril Monroe Orchestra

Happy days are coming back again

Join with me and sing this sweet refrain

The government has got a five-year plan

That will relieve the Depression

No more starvation, emancipation is here

Public works are being started right away

So we have cause to be happy and gay

These gigantic things they're going to do

Will work fine for me and you

No more starvation, emancipation is here

A mammoth engineering job has been executed

I mean the harbor scheme that just been completed

Port of Spain will hold her place with ease

The premier city in the West Indies

No starvation, emancipation is here

Soon a marked improved change we all will see

A happy tidal wave of prosperity

We'll be able to maintain our family

HANS SCHWEITZER: GERMANY, 1930S

In Germany in the 1930s, propaganda was in full swing and being used by Hitler's advisers to call the German people to arms and spread lies about the Jews. One of the most famous artists behind Nazi propaganda was Hans Schweitzer, known as "Mjolnir." This poster by Hans Schweitzer shows the typical pro-Nazi theme of the German army's strength, depicting an S.A. man standing next to a soldier. The text reads, "The guarantee of German military strength!"

This next poster by Mjolnir, titled "Our Last Hope: Hitler" was used in the presidential elections of 1932, when Germany was suffering through its great depression. Nazi propagandists targeted the German people who were unemployed and living on the breadline, and they suggested Hitler as their way out, their savior.

The propaganda then used the scapegoat of the Jews, blaming them for all of Germany's problems and the war. Many posters were entitled, "He is guilty for the war." This was the key message of Hitler to start his campaign of terror and for the ethnic cleansing that ensued. Almost the entire campaign from beginning to end was driven by the artist Mjølner. Just as the media molds public opinion today, Mjølner most definitely molded the opinion of the German people through his designs. There is no doubts about the immorality and emotional deception of these

we are rid of you at last

Howdy gay times
Cloudy gray times
You are now a thing of the past

Happy days are here again
The skies above are clear again
So let's sing a song of cheer again
Happy days are here again

Altogether shout it now
There's no one
Who can doubt it now
So let's tell the world about it now
Happy days are here again

Your cares and troubles are gone
There'll be no more from now on
From now on ...

Happy days are here again
The skies above are clear again
So, Let's sing a song of cheer again

Happy times
Happy nights
Happy days
Are here again!
