

The following statement was made by British Prime Minister, Neville Chamberlain, in front of #10 Downing Street, London, after his arrival home from the notorious Munich Conference of 1938

We, the German Fuhrer and Chancellor, and the British Prime Minister, have had a further meeting today and are agreed in recognizing that the question of Anglo-German relations is of the first importance for our two countries and for Europe.

We regard the agreement signed last night and the Anglo-German Naval Agreement as symbolic of the desire of our two peoples never to go to war with one another again.

We are resolved that the method of consultation shall be the method adopted to deal with any other questions that may concern our two countries, and we are determined to continue our efforts to remove possible sources of difference, and thus to contribute to assure the peace of Europe.

My good friends, for the second time in our history, a British Prime Minister has returned from Germany bringing peace with honor. I believe it is "peace for our time." Go home and get a nice quiet sleep

Chamberlain says he only wants peace

Please hold your hand, it is time to cease

So he told them peace, only peace

Don't come on this bad track, only peace

So he told them peace, only peace

Don't destroy the Europe, only peace

And he told them hold up, only peace

Chamberlain told them to realize

These are the days we are civilize

So he told them peace, only peace

He told them consider, only peace

Don't slaughter your brother, only peace

Put down the bayonet, only peace

Don't come with the hatchet, only peace

So he told them peace, only peace

But the Czech said they don't understand

So he told them peace, only peace

He told them to hold up, only peace

Don't destroy Europe, only peace

Remember the children, only peace

The young generation, only peace

So he told them peace, only peace

Russia and France said we have to fight

Chamberlain said it wouldn't be right

So he told them peace, only peace

He went to see Hitler, only peace

To cool down his temper, only peace

To make him consider, only peace

It was in September, only peace

Chamberlain said don't dig any drains

Please don't start up those aeroplanes

So he told them peace, only peace

And he form a parley, only peace

Not to kill nobody, only peace

Just to stop the sneering only peace

And stop the preparing, only peace

Chamberlain said that he want more peace

Please hold your hand, it's time to cease

So he told them peace, only peace

Told them to consent, only peace

To put down the armament, only peace

Don't come with the cannon, only peace

And put down the wagon, only peace

So he told them peace, only peace
